GENERAL COUNSEL'S MOTION TO FILE OVERSIZE ANSWERING BRIEF TO RESPONDENT'S EXCEPTIONS AND BRIEF IN SUPPORT

Pursuant to Section 102.46 of the National Labor Relations Board's Rules and Regulations, Series 8, as amended. Counsel for the Acting General Counsel moves for permission to file a brief not to exceed 75 pages in answer to Respondent's exceptions and brief in support thereof.

On May 6, 2013, Administrative Law Judge William G. Kocol issued his recommended decision in this matter. On July 10, 2013, Respondent filed 42 individual exceptions and a detailed brief in support of those exceptions.

In light of the above, Counsel for the Acting General Counsel moves for permission to file an oversize brief, not to exceed 75 pages, in answer to Respondent's exceptions based upon the length of the recommended decision and order (30 single-spaced pages), the voluminous record (689 page transcript, hundreds of pages of exhibits), the quantity of exceptions filed and the length, complexity, and breadth of Respondent's brief in support of its exceptions.

Dated at Los Angeles, California, this 30th day of July, 2013.
