DEFINITIONS AND INSTRUCTIONS

1) This subpoena is intended to cover all documents that are available to GameStop Corp., hereinafter referred to as Respondent GameStop Corp., GameStop, Inc., hereinafter referred to as Respondent GameStop, Inc., Sunrise Publications, Inc., hereinafter referred to as Respondent Sunrise Publications, and GameStop Texas Ltd. (L.P.) hereinafter referred to a Respondent Gamestop Texas Ltd., hereinafter collectively referred to as Respondents, or subject to Respondents' reasonable acquisition, including, but not limited to, documents in the possession or control of Respondents or their attorneys, accountants, advisors, investigators or other persons directly or indirectly employed or retained by, or connected with Respondents or their attorneys, or anyone else otherwise subject to its control.

2) When used in this subpoena, the word "document" or "documents" means any existing printed, typewritten, handwritten or otherwise record material of whatever character, including, but not limited to, letters, correspondence, memoranda, telegrams, mailgrams, minutes, notes, statements, affidavits, agreements, summaries, records of telephone conversations, telephone bills, recordings of personal conversations, interviews or meetings, transcripts, diaries, reports, charts, contracts, calendars, interoffice communications, books, records, tax records, bookkeeping and/or accounting work papers, canceled checks, accounts, account receivable records, ledgers, journals, purchase orders, invoices, bills of lading, billing slips, delivery records, receiving records, photographs, microfilm, audio or video tapes, voice mail messages, material existing on computer software or hardware, computer tapes or disks and electronic mail, and all data contained thereon that may be retrieved, including material stored on hard disks, and any carbon, photographic or other duplicate copy of such material in the possession of, control of, or available to the subpoenaed party or any attorney, agent, representative or other person acting in cooperation with, in concert with, or on behalf of Respondents.

3) Whenever used in this subpoena, the singular shall be deemed to include the plural, and vice versa; the present tense shall be deemed to include the past tense, and vice versa; reference to parties shall be deemed to include any and all of their officers, agents and representatives; the masculine shall be deemed to include the feminine, and vice versa; the disjunctive "or" shall be deemed to include the conjunctive" and," and vice versa; and each of the words "each," "any," "every," and "all" shall be deemed to include each of the other words.

4) Any copies of original documents which are different in any way from the original, whether by interlineation, receipt, stamp, notations, indication of copies sent or received, or otherwise, shall themselves be considered original documents and must be produced separately from the originals or copies of originals.

5) All documents produced pursuant to this subpoena should be organized by the subpoena paragraph to which each document or set of documents is responsive.

6) This request contemplates production of responsive documents in their entirety, without abbreviation or expurgation.

7) If any document responsive to any request herein was withheld from production on the asserted ground that it is privileged, identify and describe:

a) the author;
b) the recipient;
c) the date of the original document;
d) the subject matter of the document.

8) If any document responsive to any request herein was, but no longer is, in Respondents' possession, custody or control, identify the document (stating its date, author, subject, recipients and intended recipients); explain the circumstances by which the document ceased to be in Respondents' custody or control; and identify (stating the person's name, employer title, business address and telephone number, and home address and telephone number) all persons known or believed to have the document or a copy thereof in their possession, custody or control.

9) If any document responsive to any request herein was destroyed, discarded, or otherwise disposed of for whatever reasons, identify the document (stating its date, author, addressee(s), receipts and intended recipients, title and subject matter); explain the circumstances surrounding the destruction, discarding or disposal of the documents, including the timing of the destruction, discharging or disposal of the document; and identify all persons known or believed to have the document or a copy thereof in their possession, custody or control.

10) This request is continuing in character and if additional responsive documents come to Respondents' attention following the date of production, such documents must be promptly produced.

11) Whenever used in this subpoena, the term "employee" shall include any employee, employed by any of the Respondents, as defined in Section 2(3) of the Act.
