Re. Lori's Diner International
Case No. 20-RD-2477

Dear Mr. Heltzer:

This office is counsel to UNITE-HERE Local 2, AFL-CIO, which represents the employees at issue in the above-captioned matter. The Union will almost certainly file an opposition to the Request(s) for Review that may be filed herein by the Employer and the Petitioner. We write to respectfully request that the date for filing any such opposition be extended through to Friday, April 8, 2011.

By letter dated March 16, your office granted the Employer's March 12 request for a one-week extension of time for the filing of a Request for Review, through to March 29, 2011. Pursuant to NLRB Rules and Regulations, Section 102.67(e), any opposition to the Employer's Request for Review would be due April 5. However, I am scheduled to be out of town on a pre-paid vacation from March 26 through April 3, and my first opportunity to review the Employer's Request for Review will be the following Monday, April 4. One day will likely be insufficient time to review the Employer's request and prepare the Union's opposition, especially given the other litigation matters that will need to be attended to upon my return. For this reason, I respectfully request a three-day extension of time, through to Friday, April 8.

We understand from the Employer's March 12 letter that Petitioner Frank Park intends also to file a Request for Review. We anticipate that Mr. Park's Request for Review will be similar, if not identical, to the Employer's. For this reason, we further request that the Union be permitted to file a single opposition to both Requests for Review, to be filed no later than Friday, April 8.

Thank you for your consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

LEONARD CARDER, LLP
