Dear Counsels:

This is in response to the Employer's Supplement to Stericycle's Request for Review of the Regional Director's Decision to Hold a Board-Ordered Election in Abeyance, which the Employer electronically filed on October 28, 2011.

Following the Regional Director's September 23, 2011 blocking letter, requests for review were originally due on October 7, 2011. The Employer requested, and was granted an extension of time until October 11, 2011 to file its Request for Review. The Employer timely electronically filed its Request for Review on October 11. On October 28, more than two-weeks past the due date for requests for review, the Employer filed the Supplement to Stericycle's Request for Review of the Regional Director's Decision to Hold a Board-Ordered Election in Abeyance.

Section 102.67(b) of the Board's Rules and Regulations requires that any request for review be filed within 14 days of service of the Regional Director's decision. There is no provision in the Rules that allow further supplemental argument after the due date for the filing of the request for review. Further, the desire to clarify, provide additional authority, and correct an oversight does not appear to be compelling reasons that warrant a supplemental filing after the due date. Accordingly, the Employer's October 28 supplement is untimely and will not be forwarded to the Board for consideration.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Farah Z. Qureshi
Associate Executive Secretary
