Re: Case No. 22-RC-077044
Allied Aviation Services, Employer; Local 553 IBT Petitioner
Exceptions to ALJ Landow Report

Dear Mr. Pearce,

Please allow this correspondence to serve as our client's, Allied Aviation Services, request for an extension in providing a response with exceptions to the decision of Administrative Law Judge, Mindy E. Landow, in the above referenced case.

While the decision was dated January 15, 2013, it was not received in our Tampa, Florida office until Tuesday, January 22 (the first day of mail delivery after the Martin Luther King Holiday). By that time, Attorney Suarez had traveled to Providence, Rhode Island where he was previously committed to two (2) days of depositions. He did not return until late evening on January 23. Consequently, his first opportunity to review Judge Landow's ruling was this morning.

As such, we respectfully request an extension of fourteen (14) to appropriate assess this matter, discuss it with our client and submit any exceptions to Judge Landow's report. With this extension, we will respond to Board by no later than Tuesday, February 12, 2013.

We thank you in advance for granting us additional time.

Sincerely,

T.J. Ginnetti
