DECISION
AND
DIRECTION OF ELECTION

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Upon petition duly filed by United Furniture Workers of America, Local 426, C. I. O., herein called the Union, alleging that a question affecting commerce had arisen concerning the representation of employees of Holland Furniture Company, Holland, Michigan, herein called the Company, the National Labor Relations Board provided for an appropriate hearing upon due notice before Harold A. Cranefield, Trial Examiner. Said hearing was held at Grand Rapids, Michigan, on September 3, 1943. The Company and the Union appeared at and participated in the hearing.<sup>1</sup> All parties were afforded full opportunity to be heard, to examine and cross-examine witnesses, and to introduce evidence bearing on the issues. The Trial Examiner's rulings made at the hearing are free from prejudicial error and are hereby affirmed. All parties were afforded opportunity to file briefs with the Board.

Upon the entire record in the case, the Board makes the following:

FINDINGS OF FACT

I. THE BUSINESS OF THE COMPANY

Holland Furniture Company is a Michigan corporation with its principal place of business at Holland, Michigan, where it is engaged in the manufacture of furniture. During 1942 the Company purchased raw materials valued in excess of $250,000, approximately 78 percent of which was shipped to it from points outside the State of Michigan. During the same period the Company sold products valued in excess of $680,000, about 85 percent of which was shipped to points outside the State of Michigan.

II. THE ORGANIZATION INVOLVED

United Furniture Workers of America, Local 426, is a labor organization affiliated with the Congress of Industrial Organizations, admitting to membership employees of the Company.

III. THE QUESTION CONCERNING REPRESENTATION

The Company refuses to recognize the Union as the exclusive collective bargaining representative of its employees until such time as the Union is certified by the Board.

A statement of the Regional Director, introduced into evidence at the hearing, indicates that the Union represents a substantial number of employees in the unit hereinafter found to be appropriate.<sup>2</sup>

We find that a question affecting commerce has arisen concerning the representation of employees of the Company, within the meaning of Section 9 (c) and Section 2 (6) and (7) of the National Labor Relations Act.

IV. THE APPROPRIATE UNIT

The Union urges that all production and maintenance employees of the Company, excluding office, clerical, and supervisory employees and foremen, constitute an appropriate unit. The only controversy with respect to the unit concerns firemen-watchmen.

The Company employs three persons classified by it as firemen-watchmen. The Union urges that they be included in the unit and the Company that they be excluded. The firemen-watchmen fire the boilers of the power and heating plant. In addition they make appointed rounds of the plant as watchmen. The firemen-watchmen are not sworn as auxiliary United States military police. Under the circumstances, we shall include the firemen-watchmen in the unit.

We find that all production and maintenance employees of the Company, including firemen-watchmen, but excluding office and clerical employees, foremen, and any other supervisory employees with authority to hire, promote, discharge, discipline, or otherwise effect changes in the status of employees, or effectively recommend such action, constitute a unit appropriate for the purposes of collective bargaining, within the meaning of Section 9 (b) of the Act.

V. THE DETERMINATION OF REPRESENTATIVES

We shall direct that the question concerning representation which has arisen be resolved by means of an election by secret ballot among the employees in the appropriate unit who were employed during the pay-roll period immediately preceding the date of the Direction of Election herein, subject to the limitations and additions set forth in the Direction.
