DIRECTION OF ELECTION

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Upon petition duly filed by International Molders and Foundry Workers, Local #213, A. F. of L., herein called the Union, alleging that a question affecting commerce had arisen concerning the representation of employees of Neil J. Kunst, Lloyd M. Norton, and Loretta S. Kunst, d/b/a Connor Foundry Company, Grand Rapids, Michigan, herein called the Company, the National Labor Relations Board provided for an appropriate hearing upon due notice before Harold A. Cranefield, Trial Examiner. Said hearing was held at Grand Rapids, Michigan, on October 8, 1943. The Company and the Union appeared, participated, and were afforded full opportunity to be heard, to examine and cross-examine witnesses, and to introduce evidence bearing on the issues. The Trial Examiner's rulings made at the hearing are free from prejudicial error and are hereby affirmed. All parties were afforded opportunity to file briefs with the Board.

Upon the entire record in the case, the Board makes the following:

FINDINGS OF FACT

I. THE BUSINESS OF THE COMPANY

Connor Foundry Company is a copartnership with its principal place of business at Grand Rapids, Michigan, where it is engaged in the manufacture of grey iron castings. Approximately 53 percent of the raw materials used by the Company is shipped to it from points outside the State of Michigan. The Company sells products valued at about $15,000, monthly, practically all of which is shipped to points within the State of Michigan.

II. THE ORGANIZATION INVOLVED

International Molders and Foundry Workers, Local #213, is a labor organization affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, admitting to membership employees of the Company.

III. THE QUESTION CONCERNING REPRESENTATION

During August 1943, the Union requested the Company to recognize it as the exclusive collective bargaining representative of the Company's employees. The Company refused this request until such time as the Union is certified by the Board.

A statement of the Regional Director, introduced into evidence at the hearing, indicates that the Union represents a substantial number of employees in the unit hereinafter found to be appropriate.¹

We find that a question affecting commerce has arisen concerning the representation of employees of the Company, within the meaning of Section 9 (c) and Section 2 (6) and (7) of the National Labor Relations Act.

IV. THE APPROPRIATE UNIT

We find, in agreement with a stipulation of the parties, that all employees of the Company, excluding office employees and all supervisory employees with authority to hire, promote, discharge, discipline, or otherwise effect changes in the status of employees, or effectively recommend such action, constitute a union appropriate for the purposes of collective bargaining, within the meaning of Section 9 (b) of the Act.

V. THE DETERMINATION OF REPRESENTATIVES

We shall direct that the question concerning representation which has arisen be resolved by means of an election by secret ballot among the employees in the appropriate unit who were employed during the pay-roll period immediately preceding the date of the Direction of Election herein, subject to the limitations and additions set forth in the Direction.

¹The Regional Director reported that the Union presented 21 authorization cards bearing apparently genuine signatures of persons whose names appear on the Company's pay roll of September 20, 1943. There are approximately 42 employees in the appropriate unit
