STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Upon petition duly filed by United Stone and Allied Products Workers of America, herein called the Union, alleging that a question affecting commerce had arisen concerning the representation of employees of Green Mountain Marble Corporation, West Rutland, Vermont, herein called the Company, the National Labor Relations Board provided for an appropriate hearing upon due notice before Robert E. Greene, Trial Examiner. Said hearing was held at Rutland, Vermont, on October 27, 1943. The Company and the Union appeared, participated, and were afforded full opportunity to be heard, to examine and cross-examine witnesses, and to introduce evidence bearing on the issues. The Trial Examiner's rulings made at the hearing are free from prejudicial error and are hereby affirmed. All parties were afforded opportunity to file briefs with the Board.

Upon the entire record in the case, the Board makes the following:

FINDING OF FACTS

I. THE BUSINESS OF THE COMPANY

Green Mountain Marble Corporation is a Vermont corporation operating at Clarendon and West Rutland, Vermont, where it is engaged in the quarrying of marble. During 1942 the Company quarried marble valued at about $35,000. During the same period the Company sold finished products valued at about $154,000, approximately 95 percent of which was shipped to points outside the State of Vermont.

II. THE ORGANIZATION INVOLVED

United Stone and Allied Products Workers of America is a labor organization, admitting to membership employees of the Company.

III. THE QUESTION CONCERNING REPRESENTATION

On September 13, 1943, the Union requested the Company to recognize it as the exclusive collective bargaining representative of the Company's employees. The Company refused this request until such time as the Union is certified by the Board.

A statement of the Regional Director, introduced into evidence at the hearing, indicates that the Union represents a substantial number of employees in the unit hereinafter found to be appropriate.<sup>1</sup>

We find that a question affecting commerce has arisen concerning the representation of employees of the Company, within the meaning of Section 9 (c) and Section 2 (6) and (7) of the National Labor Relations Act.

IV. THE APPROPRIATE UNIT

We find, in substantial agreement with a stipulation of the parties, that all production and maintenance employees of the Company at its shop and quarries at West Rutland and Clarendon, Vermont, excluding clerical employees and all supervisory employees with authority to hire, promote, discharge, discipline, or otherwise effect changes in the status of employees, or effectively recommend such action, constitute a unit appropriate for the purposes of collective bargaining, within the meaning of Section 9 (b) of the Act.

V. THE DETERMINATION OF REPRESENTATIVES

We shall direct that the question concerning representation which has arisen be resolved by means of an election by secret ballot among the employees in the appropriate unit who were employed during the pay-roll period immediately preceding the date of the Direction of Election herein, subject to the limitations and additions set forth in the Direction.

<sup>1</sup> The Regional Director reported that the Union presented 43 authorization cards bearing apparently genuine signatures of persons whose names appear on the Company's pay roll of September 28, 1943. There are 57 persons in the appropriate unit.
