STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Upon a petition duly filed by International Woodworkers of America, affiliated with the Congress of Industrial Organizations, herein called the Union, alleging that a question affecting commerce had arisen concerning the representation of employees of McKnight Veneers, Inc., Helena, Arkansas, herein called the Company, the National Labor Relations Board provided for an appropriate hearing upon due notice before John H. Eadie, Trial Examiner. Said hearing was held at Helena, Arkansas, on April 18, 1944. The Company and the Union appeared and participated. All parties were afforded full opportunity to be heard, to examine and cross-examine witnesses, and to introduce evidence bearing on the issues. The Trial Examiner's rulings made at the hearing are free from prejudicial error and are hereby affirmed. All parties were afforded an opportunity to file briefs with the Board.

Upon the entire record in the case, the Board makes the following:

FINDINGS OF FACT

I. THE BUSINESS OF THE COMPANY

The Company, an Arkansas corporation, is engaged in West Helena, Arkansas, in the manufacture of veneer for boxes. The Company uses raw materials consisting primarily of logs valued at about $125,000, of which about $10,000 in value come from sources outside the State of Arkansas. Of the Company's finished products, about 95 percent is shipped to points outside the State of Arkansas.

The Company admits that it is engaged in commerce within the meaning of the National Labor Relations Act.

II. THE ORGANIZATION INVOLVED

International Woodworkers of America, affiliated with the Congress of Industrial Organizations, is a labor organization admitting to membership employees of the Company.

III. THE QUESTION CONCERNING REPRESENTATION

The Company has refused to grant recognition to the Union as the exclusive bargaining representative of certain of the Company's employees until the Union has been certified by the Board in an appropriate unit.

A statement of a Board agent, introduced into evidence at the hearing, indicates that the Union represents a substantial number of employees in the unit hereinafter found appropriate.<sup>2</sup>

We find that a question affecting commerce has arisen concerning the representation of employees of the Company, within the meaning of Section 9 (c) and Section 2 (6) and (7), of the Act.

IV. THE APPROPRIATE UNIT

We find, in substantial agreement with the position of the parties, that all production and maintenance employees of the Company, including the watchman, but excluding clerical employees and all supervisory employees with authority to hire, promote, discharge, discipline, or otherwise effect changes in the status of employees, or effectively recommend such action, constitute a unit appropriate for the purposes of collective bargaining within the meaning of Section 9 (b) of the Act.

V. THE DETERMINATION OF REPRESENTATIVES

We shall direct that the question concerning representation which has arisen be resolved by an election by secret ballot among the employees in the appropriate unit who were employed during the pay-roll period immediately preceding the date of the Direction of Election herein, subject to the limitations and additions set forth in the Direction.

<sup>2</sup>The Field Examiner reported that the Union submitted 67 authorization cards, 36 of which bore the names of persons appearing on the Company's pay roll, which contained the names of 105 employees in the appropriate unit.

DIRECTION OF ELECTION

By virtue of and pursuant to the power vested in the National Labor Relations Board by Section 9 (c) of the National Labor Relations Act; and pursuant to Article III, Section 9, of National Labor Relations Board Rules and Regulations—Series 3, it is hereby
