STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Upon petition duly filed by United Packinghouse Workers of America, Local 246, C. I. O., herein called the Union, alleging that a question affecting commerce had arisen concerning the representation of employees of Armour Fertilizer Works, Division of Armour & Company, Carteret, New Jersey, herein called the Company, the National Labor Relations Board provided for an appropriate hearing upon due notice before Eugene M. Purver, Trial Examiner. Said hearing was held at New Brunswick, New Jersey, on May 12, 1944. The Company and the Union appeared, participated, and were afforded full opportunity to be heard, to examine and cross-examine witnesses, and to introduce evidence bearing on the issues. The Trial Examiner's rulings made at the hearing are free from prejudicial error and are hereby affirmed. All parties were afforded opportunity to file briefs with the Board.

Upon the entire record in the case, the Board makes the following:

FINDINGS OF FACT

I. THE BUSINESS OF THE COMPANY

Armour Fertilizer Works, Division of Armour & Company, an Illinois corporation, operates a fertilizer plant at Carteret, New Jersey. During its fiscal year 1943-1944 the Company used approximately 60,000 tons of raw materials at its Carteret plant, approximately

During the same period the Company produced about 75,000 tons of super phosphates, sulphuric acid and fertilizer at its Carteret plant, approximately 70 percent of which was shipped to points outside the State of New Jersey.

We find that the Company is engaged in commerce within the meaning of the National Labor Relations Act at its Carteret plant.

On March 25, 1944, the Union requested the Company to recognize it as exclusive collective bargaining representative of the employees at the Carteret plant. The Company refused this request.

A statement of the Trial Examiner, read into evidence at the hearing, indicates that the Union represents a substantial number of employees in the unit hereinafter found to be appropriate.¹

We find that a question affecting commerce has arisen concerning the representation of employees of the Company, within the meaning of Section 9 (c) and Section 2 (6) and (7) of the Act.

IV. THE APPROPRIATE UNIT

We find, in substantial agreement with a stipulation of the parties, that all production and maintenance employees at the Carteret plant of the Company, excluding office employees, truck drivers, watchmen, guards, and all supervisory employees with authority to hire, promote, discipline, discharge, or otherwise effect changes in the status of employees, or effectively recommend such action, constitute a unit appropriate for the purposes of collective bargaining, within the meaning of Section 9 (b) of the Act.

V. THE DETERMINATION OF REPRESENTATIVES

We shall direct that the question concerning representation which has arisen be resolved by means of an election by secret ballot among the employees in the appropriate unit who were employed during the pay-roll period immediately preceding the date of the Direction of
