DECISION
AND
DIRECTION OF ELECTION

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Upon petition duly filed by American Federation of Labor, herein called the Union, alleging that a question affecting commerce had arisen concerning the representation of employees of Stanback Company, Ltd., Salisbury, North Carolina, herein called the Company, the National Labor Relations Board provided for an appropriate hearing upon due notice before George L. Weasler, Trial Examiner. Said hearing was held at Salisbury, North Carolina, on August 7, 1944. The Company and the Union appeared, participated, and were afforded full opportunity to be heard, to examine and cross-examine witnesses, and to introduce evidence bearing on the issues. The Trial Examiner's rulings made at the hearing are free from prejudicial error and are hereby affirmed. All parties were afforded opportunity to file briefs with the Board.

Upon the entire record in the case, the Board makes the following:

FINDINGS OF FACT

I. THE BUSINESS OF THE COMPANY

Stanback Company, Ltd. is a partnership with its principal place of business at Salisbury, North Carolina, where it is engaged in the manufacture of headache powders. During 1943 the Company purchased raw materials valued in excess of $100,000, all of which was shipped to it from points outside the State of North Carolina. During the same period the Company sold products valued in excess of $200,000, over 85 percent of which was shipped to points outside the State of North Carolina.

The Company admits that it is engaged in commerce within the meaning of the National Labor Relations Act.

II. THE ORGANIZATION INVOLVED

The American Federation of Labor is a labor organization admitting to membership employees of the Company.

III. THE QUESTION CONCERNING REPRESENTATION

On June 7, 1944, the Union requested the Company to recognize it as the exclusive collective bargaining representative of the Company's employees. The Company refused this request until such time as the Union is certified by the Board.

A statement of a Field Examiner of the Board, introduced into evidence at the hearing, indicates that the Union represents a substantial number of employees in the unit hereinafter found to be appropriate.¹

We find that a question affecting commerce has arisen concerning the representation of employees of the Company, within the meaning of Section 9 (c) and Section 2 (6) and (7) of the Act.

IV. THE APPROPRIATE UNIT

We find, in agreement with the parties, that all production and maintenance employees of the Company, including packers, sealers, machine operators, cellophane wrappers, and shipping room employees, but excluding the chemist, office and clerical employees, the foreman, the forelady, and any other supervisory employees with authority to hire, promote, discharge, discipline, or otherwise effect changes in the status of employees, or effectively recommend such action, constitute a unit appropriate for the purposes of collective bargaining, within the meaning of Section 9 (b) of the Act.

V. THE DETERMINATION OF REPRESENTATIVES

We shall direct that the question concerning representation which has arisen be resolved by means of an election by secret ballot among the employees in the appropriate unit who were employed during the pay-roll period immediately preceding the date of the Direction of Election herein, subject to the limitations and additions set forth in the Direction.

¹ The Field Examiner reported that the Union presented 41 membership application cards. There are approximately 61 employees in the appropriate unit.

The Union requests that it appear on the ballot as "American Federation of Labor, Local #23,684." The request is hereby granted.
