SECOND DIRECTION OF ELECTION

December 29, 1944

On October 25, 1944, pursuant to the Decision and Direction of Election issued by the Board herein on October 7, 1944,¹ an election by secret ballot was conducted under the direction and supervision of the Regional Director for the Third Region (Buffalo, New York). On October 26, 1944, the Textile Workers Union of America, C. I. O., herein called the CIO, filed Objections to the conduct of the election. Upon consideration of the Objections and the entire record in the case, the Board on December 6, 1944, sustained the CIO's Objections and vacated the election in a Decision and Order Setting Aside Election.² It was provided in the Decision of December 6 that a new election would be directed at such time as the Regional Director advised to be appropriate.

The Regional Director having on December 18, 1944, advised the Board that the time is now appropriate, we shall direct that a second election by secret ballot be conducted among the employees in the unit heretofore found appropriate. Those eligible to vote shall be all employees in the appropriate unit who were employed during the pay-roll period immediately preceding the date of our original Direction of Election issued on October 7, 1944, subject to the limitations and additions set forth in our Second Direction of Election.
