DIRECTION OF ELECTION

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Upon petition duly filed by United Garment Workers of America, A. F. of L., herein called the Union, alleging that a question affecting commerce had arisen concerning the representation of employees of Reliance Manufacturing Company of Hattiesburg, Mississippi, Hattiesburg, Mississippi, herein called the Company, the National Labor Relations Board provided for an appropriate hearing upon due notice before LeRoy Marceau, Trial Examiner. Said hearing was held at Hattiesburg, Mississippi, on April 5, 1945. The Company and the Union appeared, participated, and were afforded full opportunity to be heard, to examine and cross-examine witnesses, and to introduce evidence bearing on the issues. The Trial Examiner's rulings made at the hearing are free from prejudicial error and are hereby affirmed. All parties were afforded opportunity to file briefs with the Board.

Upon the entire record in the case, the Board makes the following:

FINDINGS OF FACT

I. THE BUSINESS OF THE COMPANY

Reliance Manufacturing Company of Hattiesburg, Mississippi, is a Mississippi corporation engaged in the manufacture of garments at Hattiesburg, Mississippi. During 1944 the Company purchased raw materials valued at about $700,000, approximately 90 percent of which was shipped to it from points outside the State of Mississippi. During the same period the Company sold products valued at about $1,000,000, over 90 percent of which was shipped to points outside the State of Mississippi.

The Company admits that it is engaged in commerce within the meaning of the National Labor Relations Act.

II. THE ORGANIZATION INVOLVED

United Garment Workers of America is a labor organization affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, admitting to membership employees of the Company.

III. THE QUESTION CONCERNING REPRESENTATION

On March 3, 1945, the Union requested the Company to recognize it as the exclusive collective bargaining representative of the Company's employees. The Company did not reply to this request.

A statement of an agent of the Board, introduced into evidence at the hearing, indicates that the Union represents a substantial number of employees in the unit hereinafter found to be appropriate.¹

We find that a question affecting commerce has arisen concerning the representation of employees of the Company, within the meaning of Section 9 (c) and Section 2 (6) and (7) of the Act.

IV. THE APPROPRIATE UNIT

We find, in accordance with a stipulation of the parties, that all production and maintenance employees at the Hattiesburg plant of the Company, excluding clerical employees, superintendents, foreladies, foremen, and any other supervisory employees with authority to hire, promote, discharge, discipline, or otherwise effect changes in the status of employees, or effectively recommend such action, constitute a unit appropriate for the purposes of collective bargaining, within the meaning of Section 9 (b) of the Act.

V. THE DETERMINATION OF REPRESENTATIVES

We shall direct that the question concerning representation which has arisen be resolved by means of an election by secret ballot among the employees in the appropriate unit who were employed during the pay-roll period immediately preceding the date of the Direction of Election herein, subject to the limitations and additions set forth in the Direction.

¹ The Board agent reported that the Union presented 405 application cards. There are approximately 600 employees in the appropriate unit.
