Case 24-CA-10951

September 17, 2008

DECISION AND ORDER

BY CHAIRMAN SCHAMBER AND MEMBER LIEBMAN

This is a refusal-to-bargain case in which the Respondent is contesting the Union's certification as bargaining representative in the underlying representation proceeding. Pursuant to a charge filed on July 1, 2008, the General Counsel issued the complaint on July 15, 2008, alleging that the Respondent has violated Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act by refusing the Union's request to bargain following the Union's certification in Case 24-RC-8577. (Official notice is taken of the "record" in the representation proceeding as defined in the Board's Rules and Regulations, Sections 102.68 and 102.69(g); Frontier Hotel, 265 NLRB 343 (1982).) The Respondent filed an answer, admitting in part and denying in part the allegations in the complaint and asserting affirmative defenses.¹

On August 12, 2008, the General Counsel filed a Motion Submitting Motion for Summary Judgment and Attachments, and Motion for Summary Judgment. On August 14, 2008, the Board issued an order transferring the proceeding to the Board and a Notice to Show Cause why the motion should not be granted. The Respondent filed no response.

Ruling on Motion for Summary Judgment²

The Respondent admits its refusal to bargain, but contests the validity of the Union's certification on the basis of its objections to the election in the representation proceeding.³

¹ The Respondent's answer denies sufficient knowledge concerning the filing and service of the charge. Copies of the charge and affidavit of service thereof are attached as exhibits to the General Counsel's motion, showing the dates as alleged, and the Respondent does not challenge the authenticity of these documents.

² Effective midnight December 28, 2007, Members Liebman, Schaumber, Kirsanow, and Walsh delegated to Members Liebman, Schaumber, and Kirsanow, as a three-member group, all of the Board's powers in anticipation of the expiration of the terms of Members Kirsanow and Walsh on December 31, 2007. Pursuant to this delegation, Chairman Schaumber and Member Liebman constitute a quorum of the three-member group. As a quorum, they have the authority to issue decisions and orders in unfair labor practice and representation cases. See Sec. 3(b) of the Act.

All representation issues raised by the Respondent were or could have been litigated in the prior representation proceeding. The Respondent does not offer to adduce at a hearing any newly discovered and previously unavailable evidence, nor does it allege any special circumstances that would require the Board to reexamine the decision made in the representation proceeding. We therefore find that the Respondent has not raised any representation issue that is properly litigable in this unfair labor practice proceeding. See Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. v. NLRB, 313 U.S. 146, 162 (1941). Accordingly, we grant the Motion for Summary Judgment.⁴

On the entire record, the Board makes the following

FINDINGS OF FACT

I. JURISDICTION

At all material times, the Respondent, a U.S. Virgin Islands corporation, with an office and place of business in Davis Bay, St. Croix, U.S. Virgin Islands, has been engaged in the operation of a hotel and resort.

During the 12-month period preceding issuance of the complaint, the Respondent, in conducting its business operations described above, derived gross revenues in excess of $500,000, and purchased and received at its facility in Davis Bay, St. Croix, U.S. Virgin Islands, goods valued in excess of $50,000 directly from points outside the U.S. Virgin Islands.

We find that the Respondent is an employer engaged in commerce within the meaning of Section 2(2), (6), and (7) of the Act, and that the Union, Our Virgin Islands Labor Union (OVILU), is a labor organization within the meaning of Section 2(5) of the Act.⁵

II. ALLEGED UNFAIR LABOR PRACTICES

A. The Certification

Following the representation election held on October 25, 2007, the Union was certified on May 28, 2008, as the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of the employees in the following appropriate unit:

All full time and regular part time employees, including cooks, bartenders, housekeeping and laundry workers, receptionists, waiters, waitresses, and maintenance workers who are employed by the Employer at its facility in St. Croix, USVI; but excluding all other employees, guards, and supervisors as defined in the Act.

⁴ We also deny the Respondent's request that the complaint be dismissed and that the Board award it attorneys' fees.

⁵ The Respondent's answer denies sufficient knowledge regarding the Union's status as a labor organization and the appropriateness of the certified unit. In the underlying representation proceeding, the Respondent stipulated that the unit was appropriate and did not challenge the Union's labor organization status. Accordingly, we find that the Respondent's answer does not raise any issue warranting a hearing with respect to these allegations. See All American Service & Supplies, 340 NLRB 239 fn. 2 (2003).

The Union continues to be the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of the unit employees under Section 9(a) of the Act.

B. Refusal to Bargain

About June 16, 2008, by electronic mail, the Union requested that the Respondent bargain collectively with it as the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of the unit. Since about June 25, 2008, the Respondent has failed and refused to recognize and bargain with the Union as the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of the unit. We find that this failure and refusal constitutes an unlawful failure and refusal to bargain in violation of Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act.

CONCLUSION OF LAW

By failing and refusing since about June 25, 2008, to recognize and bargain with the Union as the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of the unit employees, the Respondent has engaged in unfair labor practices affecting commerce within the meaning of Section 8(a)(5) and (1) and Section 2(6) and (7) of the Act.

REMEDY

Having found that the Respondent has violated Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act, we shall order it to cease and desist, to recognize and bargain on request with the Union, and, if an understanding is reached, to embody the understanding in a signed agreement.

To ensure that the employees are accorded the services of their selected bargaining agent for the period provided by law, we shall construe the initial period of the certification as beginning the date the Respondent begins to bargain in good faith with the Union. Mar-Jac Poultry Co., 136 NLRB 785 (1962); Lamar Hotel, 140 NLRB 226, 229 (1962), enfd. 328 F.2d 600 (5th Cir. 1964), cert. denied 379 U.S. 817 (1964); and Burnett Construction Co., 149 NLRB 1419, 1421 (1964), enfd. 350 F.2d 57 (10th Cir. 1965).

Reasonable steps shall be taken by the Respondent to ensure that the notices are not altered, defaced, or covered by any other material. In the event that, during the pendency of these proceedings, the Respondent has gone out of business or closed the facility involved in these proceedings, the Respondent shall duplicate and mail, at its own expense, a copy of the notice to all current employees and former employees employed by the Respondent at any time since June 25, 2008.

(c) Within 21 days after service by the Region, file with the Regional Director a sworn certification of a responsible official on a form provided by the Region attesting to the steps that the Respondent has taken to comply.
