Equal Justice Center. Case 16-CA-26387

March 31, 2009

DECISION AND ORDER

BY CHAIRMAN LIEBMAN AND MEMBER SCHAUMBER

The General Counsel seeks a default judgment in this case on the ground that the Respondent has failed to file an answer to the complaint. Upon a charge and amended charge filed by the Charging Party on August 26 and September 18, 2008, respectively, the General Counsel issued the complaint on December 30, 2008, against Tom Arand, P.C. d/b/a Animal Care Clinic, the Respondent, alleging that it has violated Section 8(a)(1) of the Act. The Respondent failed to file an answer.

On February 9, 2009, the General Counsel filed a Motion for Default Judgment with the Board. Thereafter, on February 12, 2009, the Board issued an order transferring the proceeding to the Board and a Notice to Show Cause why the motion should not be granted. The Respondent filed no response. The allegations in the motion are therefore undisputed.

Ruling on Motion for Default Judgment¹

Section 102.20 of the Board's Rules and Regulations provides that the allegations in the complaint shall be deemed admitted if an answer is not filed within 14 days from service of the complaint, unless good cause is shown. In addition, the complaint affirmatively stated that unless an answer was received by January 13, 2009, the Board may find, pursuant to a motion for default judgment, that the allegations in the complaint are true. Further, the undisputed allegations in the General Counsel's motion disclose that the Region, by letter dated January 15, 2009, notified the Respondent that unless an answer was received by January 21, 2009, a motion for default judgment would be filed.

In the absence of good cause being shown for the failure to file a timely answer or a response to the Notice to Show Cause, we deem the allegations in the complaint to be admitted as true, and we grant the General Counsel's Motion for Default Judgment.

On the entire record, the Board makes the following

¹ Effective midnight December 28, 2007, Members Liebman, Schaumber, Kirsanow, and Walsh delegated to Members Liebman, Schaumber, and Kirsanow, as a three-member group, all of the Board's powers in anticipation of the expiration of the terms of Members Kirsanow and Walsh on December 31, 2007. Pursuant to this delegation, Chairman Liebman and Member Schaumber constitute a quorum of the three-member group. As a quorum, they have the authority to issue decisions and orders in unfair labor practice and representation cases. See Sec. 3(b) of the Act.

FINDINGS OF FACT

I. JURISDICTION

At all material times, the Respondent, a Texas corporation, with a principal office and place of business located at 1401 South I H 35, Suite 11, Round Rock, Texas, 78664, has been engaged in business as a veterinary hospital.

During the calendar year preceding issuance of the complaint, a representative period, the Respondent, in conducting its business operations described above, derived gross revenues in excess of $1,000,000 and purchased and received at its Round Rock, Texas facility products, goods, and materials valued in excess of $50,000 directly from points located outside the State of Texas.

We find that the Respondent is an employer engaged in commerce within the meaning of Section 2(2), (6), and (7) of the Act.

II. ALLEGED UNFAIR LABOR PRACTICES

At all material times, the following individuals held the positions set forth opposite their respective names and have been supervisors of the Respondent within the meaning of Section 2(11) of the Act and/or agents of the Respondent within the meaning of Section 2(13) of the Act:

Teri Burnett	Office/Practice Manager
Dr. Jay Meyer	President/Owner

On various dates in mid to late June 2008, the Respondent's employees concertedly complained to the Respondent regarding the wages, hours, and working conditions of the Respondent's employees by verbally expressing concerns to Burnett regarding perceived inappropriate conduct and/or favoritism by Meyer towards another employee.

On various dates in July 2008, the Respondent's employees, including Wendy Castellanos, concertedly complained to the Respondent regarding the wages, hours, and working conditions of the Respondent's employees by verbally expressing concerns to Burnett regarding perceived inappropriate conduct and/or favoritism by Meyer towards another employee.

On various dates in early August 2008, the Respondent's employees, including Wendy Castellanos and James Turpin, concertedly complained to the Respondent regarding the wages, hours, and working conditions of the Respondent's employees by verbally expressing concerns to Burnett regarding perceived inappropriate conduct and/or favoritism by Meyer towards another employee.

About August 20, 2008, the Respondent, by Meyer, orally promulgated and since then has maintained a work rule that prohibits employees from discussing wages and/or other terms and conditions of employment.²

About August 21, 2008, the Respondent discharged employee Wendy Castellanos.

About August 25, 2008, the Respondent discharged employee James Turpin.

The Respondent engaged in the conduct described above because Wendy Castellanos and James Turpin engaged in and/or the Respondent believed that Castellanos and Turpin engaged in the concerted conduct described above and to discourage employees from engaging in these or other concerted activities.

CONCLUSION OF LAW

By the conduct described above, the Respondent has interfered with, restrained, and coerced employees in the exercise of the rights guaranteed them by Section 7 of the Act, and has thereby engaged in unfair labor practices affecting commerce within the meaning of Section 8(a)(1) and Section 2(6) and (7) of the Act.

REMEDY

Having found that the Respondent has engaged in certain unfair labor practices, we shall order it to cease and desist and to take certain affirmative action designed to effectuate the policies of the Act. Specifically, having found that the Respondent violated Section 8(a)(1) of the Act by discharging Wendy Castellanos and James Turpin because they engaged in and/or the Respondent believed that they engaged in protected concerted activity, we shall order the Respondent to offer these employees full reinstatement to their former jobs or, if those jobs no longer exist, to substantially equivalent positions, without prejudice to their seniority or any other rights and privileges previously enjoyed, and to make them whole for any loss of ² Although the complaint alleges these facts and requests an affirmative remedy for this allegation, the complaint does not allege that the Respondent's actions in this paragraph constitute an unfair labor practice. In these circumstances, we cannot find an unfair labor practice or provide a remedy for the Respondent's promulgation and maintenance of a work rule prohibiting employees from discussing wages and/or other terms and conditions of employment. Accordingly, the General Counsel's Motion for Default Judgment with respect to this issue is denied. Nothing herein precludes the General Counsel from amending the complaint to allege that the Respondent's promulgation and maintenance of the rule described above violated the Act. In the event that the Respondent again fails to answer, thereby admitting evidence that would permit the Board to find the alleged violation, the General Counsel may renew the Motion for Default Judgment with respect to the amended complaint allegation.
