Case 34-RC-2389

CSEA, SEIU, LOCAL 2001

Petitioner

DECISION AND CERTIFICATION OF REPRESENTATIVE

The National Labor Relations Board, by a three-member panel, has considered objections to an election held September 28, 2010, and the administrative law judge's report recommending disposition of them. The election was conducted pursuant to a Stipulated Election Agreement. The tally of ballots shows 18 for and 16 against the Petitioner, with 1 challenged ballot, an insufficient number to affect the results.

The Board has considered the record in light of the exceptions and briefs and has adopted the judge's findings and recommendations,¹ and finds that a certification of representative should be issued.

¹ The judge was serving as a hearing officer in this representation proceeding. The Employer has excepted to some of the judge's credibility findings. The Board's established policy is not to overrule an administrative law judge's credibility resolutions unless the clear preponderance of all the relevant evidence convinces us that they are incorrect. Stretch-Tex Co., 118 NLRB 1359, 1361 (1957). We have carefully examined the record and find no basis for reversing the findings.

CERTIFICATION OF REPRESENTATIVE

IT IS CERTIFIED that a majority of the valid ballots have been cast for CSEA, SEIU, Local 2001, and that it is the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of the employees in the following appropriate unit:

All full-time and regular part-time bus drivers employed by the Employer at its Gales Ferry, Connecticut facility; but excluding all aides, fuelers, dispatchers, office clerical employees, and guards, professional employees and supervisors as defined in the Act.

Dated, Washington, D.C., February 8, 2011.
