Champlin Shores Assisted Living and SEIU
Healthcare Minnesota. Case 18–CA–093766

February 14, 2013

DECISION AND ORDER

BY CHAIRMAN PEARCE AND MEMBERS GRIFFIN
AND BLOCK

This is a refusal-to-bargain case in which the Respondent is contesting the Union’s certification as bargaining representative in the underlying representation proceeding. Pursuant to a charge filed by the Union on November 27, 2012, the Acting General Counsel issued the complaint on December 6, 2012, alleging that the Respondent has violated Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act by refusing the Union’s request to bargain following the Union’s certification in Case 18-RC-087228. (Official notice is taken of the “record” in the representation proceeding as defined in the Board’s Rules and Regulations, Sections 102.68 and 102.69(g). Frontier Hotel, 265 NLRB 343 (1982).) The Respondent filed an answer, admitting in part and denying in part the allegations in the complaint.

On December 26, 2012, the Acting General Counsel filed a Motion for Summary Judgment and Brief in Support of Motion. On December 28, 2012, the Board issued an order transferring the proceeding to the Board and a Notice to Show Cause why the motion should not be granted. The Respondent filed a response.

Ruling on Motion for Summary Judgment

The Respondent admits its refusal to bargain, but contests the validity of the certification on the basis of its contention, raised and rejected in the underlying representation proceeding, that the standard used to determine the appropriateness of the bargaining unit was improper. Specifically, the Respondent argues that Specialty Healthcare & Rehabilitation of Mobile, 357 NLRB No. 83 (2011), was wrongly decided.

All representation issues raised by the Respondent were or could have been litigated in the prior representation proceeding. The Respondent does not offer to adduce at a hearing any newly discovered and previously unavailable evidence, nor does it allege any special circumstances that would require the Board to reexamine the decision made in the representation proceeding. We therefore find that the Respondent has not raised any representation issue that is properly litigable in this unfair labor practice proceeding. See Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. v. NLRB, 313 U.S. 146, 162 (1941).

Accordingly, we grant the Motion for Summary Judgment.¹

On the entire record, the Board makes the following

FINDINGS OF FACT

I. JURISDICTION

At all material times, the Respondent, a Washington corporation with an office and a place of business located in Champlin, Minnesota, has been engaged in the operation of an assisted living facility providing personal care and other services to its residents.

In conducting its operations described above, during the calendar year ending December 31, 2011, the Respondent derived gross revenues in excess of $250,000, and purchased and received goods and services at its Champlin, Minnesota facility valued in excess of $5000 directly from suppliers located outside the State of Minnesota.

We find that the Respondent is an employer engaged in commerce within the meaning of Section 2(2), (6), and (7) of the Act and that the Union, SEIU Healthcare Minnesota, is a labor organization within the meaning of Section 2(5) of the Act.

II. ALLEGED UNFAIR LABOR PRACTICES

A. The Certification

Following the representation election held on October 5, 2012, the Union was certified on October 12, 2012, as the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of the employees in the following appropriate unit:

All full-time, regular part-time, and casual/on call resident assistants and medication technicians employed by the Employer at its Champlin, Minnesota facility*; excluding all other employees, office clerical employees, managerial employees, and guards and supervisors as defined in the Act. *The parties stipulated at the hearing that regular part-time and casual/on call employees are limited by the standard established in Davison-Paxon Co., 185 NLRB 2 (1970).

The Union continues to be the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of the unit employees under Section 9(a) of the Act.

B. Refusal to Bargain

At all times since October 12, 2012, including by letters dated October 18 and November 8, 2012, the Union has requested that the Respondent recognize and bargain with it as the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of the unit. By letter dated November 26, 2012, and ¹ The Respondent’s request that the complaint be dismissed, and the certification of representative be revoked, is therefore denied.

DECISIONS OF THE NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS BOARD

at all times thereafter, the Respondent has failed and refused to recognize and bargain with the Union as the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of the unit.

We find that the Respondent's failure and refusal to recognize and bargain with the Union constitutes a violation of Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act.

CONCLUSION OF LAW

By failing and refusing since about November 26, 2012, to recognize and bargain with the Union as the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of employees in the appropriate unit, the Respondent has engaged in an unfair labor practice affecting commerce within the meaning of Section 8(a)(5) and (1) and Section 2(6) and (7) of the Act.

REMEDY

Having found that the Respondent has violated Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act, we shall order it to cease and desist, to bargain on request with the Union and, if an understanding is reached, to embody the understanding in a signed agreement.

To ensure that the employees are accorded the services of their selected bargaining agent for the period provided by law, we shall construe the initial period of the certification as beginning the date the Respondent begins to bargain in good faith with the Union. Mar-Jac Poultry Co., 136 NLRB 785 (1962); accord: Burnett Construction Co., 149 NLRB 1419, 1421 (1964), enfd. 350 F.2d 57 (10th Cir. 1965); Lamar Hotel, 140 NLRB 226, 229 (1962), enfd. 328 F.2d 600 (5th Cir. 1964), cert. denied 379 U.S. 817 (1964).
