REGIONAL DIRECTOR'S DECISION AND
DIRECTION OF ELECTION

The Employer, Gross School Bus Service, provides school bus transportation services from its Pottstown, Pennsylvania facility. The Petitioner, Carole DeJohn, filed a petition with the National Labor Relations Board under Section 9(c) of the National Labor Relations Act seeking to decertify a unit of the Employer's bus drivers and bus aides who are currently represented by the Union Involved, Teamsters Local 384. A hearing was held on May 31, 2013 before a Hearing Officer of the National Labor Relations Board, herein called the Board. Pursuant to the provisions of Section 3(b) of the Act, the Board has delegated its authority in this proceeding to the undersigned. Based upon the entire record in this matter and for the reasons set forth below, I conclude and find as follows:

1. The Hearing Officer's rulings made at the hearing are free from prejudicial error and are hereby affirmed.
2. The Employer is engaged in commerce within the meaning of the Act, and it will effectuate the purposes of the Act to assert jurisdiction in this case.
3. The Union Involved is a labor organization that claims to represent certain employees of the Employer.
4. A question affecting commerce exists concerning the representation of certain employees of the Employer within the meaning of Section 9(c)(1) and Section 2(6) and (7) of the Act.

5. The parties stipulated, and I find, that the following employees constitute a unit appropriate for the purposes of collective bargaining within the meaning of Section 9(b) of the Act:

All full time and regular part time bus drivers and bus aides employed by the Employer at its 1801 Pottstown Pike, Pottstown, Pennsylvania facility, excluding all other employees, dispatchers, managerial employees, guards and supervisors as defined in the Act.

DIRECTION OF ELECTION

The National Labor Relations Board will conduct a secret ballot election among the employees in the unit found appropriate above. The employees will vote whether or not they wish to be represented for the purposes of collective bargaining by International Brotherhood of Teamsters Local 384. The date, time, and place of the election will be specified in the Notice of Election that the Board's Regional Office will issue subsequent to this Decision.<sup>1</sup>

A. Eligible Voters

The eligible voters shall be unit employees employed during the payroll period ending immediately before the date of this Decision, including employees who did not work during that period because they were ill, on vacation, or were temporarily laid off. Employees engaged in any economic strike, who have retained their status as strikers and who have not been permanently replaced are also eligible to vote. In addition, employees engaged in an economic strike, which commenced less than 12 months before the election date, who have retained their status as strikers but who have been permanently replaced, as well as their replacements are eligible to vote. Employees who are otherwise eligible but who are in the military services of the United States may vote if they appear in person at the polls. Ineligible to vote are: 1) employees who have quit or been discharged for cause after the designated payroll period for eligibility; 2) employees engaged in a strike who have been discharged for cause since the commencement thereof and who have not been rehired or reinstated before the election date; and 3) employees engaged in an economic strike which began more than 12 months before the election date who have been permanently replaced.

<sup>1</sup> At the hearing, the Employer argued that the election should be held as soon as possible, preferably on June 11, 2013, the last full day of the school year and 11 days after the hearing. The Union Involved contended that the election should not be held until September, 2013, when the unit employees are back to work after summer vacation. The Petitioner took no position, but stated that she was willing to proceed with the election on any date found appropriate. Election arrangements, including the date of the election, are not matters within the scope of a pre-election hearing. Pursuant to its longstanding practice, the Board has left such determinations to the discretion of the Regional Director. 2 Sisters Food Group, Inc., 357 NLRB No. 168, slip op. at 4-5 (2011); Halliburton Services, 265 NLRB 1154, 1155-1156 (1982); Manchester Knitted Fashions, Inc., 108 NLRB 1366, 1367-1368 (1954). See also NLRB Casehandling Manual (Part Two), Representation Proceedings Secs. 11228, 11301.4. Accordingly, the Regional Director shall determine the election date administratively.

B. Employer to Submit List of Eligible Voters

To ensure that all eligible voters may have the opportunity to be informed of the issues in the exercise of their statutory right to vote, all parties to the election should have access to a list of voters and their addresses, which may be used to communicate with them. Excelsior Underwear, Inc., 156 NLRB 1236 (1966); NLRB v. Wyman-Gordon Company, 394 U.S. 759 (1969).

Accordingly, it is hereby directed that within seven (7) days of the date of this Decision, the Employer must submit to the Regional Office an election eligibility list, containing the full names and addresses of all the eligible voters. North Macon Health Care Facility, 315 NLRB 359, 361 (1994). The list must be of sufficiently large type to be clearly legible. To speed both preliminary checking and the voting process, the names on the list should be alphabetized (overall or by department, etc.). Upon receipt of the list, I will make it available to all parties to the election.

To be timely filed, the list must be received in the Regional Office, One Independence Mall, 615 Chestnut Street, Seventh Floor, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19106 on or before, Tuesday, June 18, 2013. No extension of time to file this list shall be granted except in extraordinary circumstances, nor will the filing of a request for review affect the requirement to file this list. Failure to comply with this requirement will be grounds for setting aside the election whenever proper objections are filed. The list may be submitted by mail, facsimile transmission at (215) 597-7658, or by electronic filing through the Agency's website at www.nlr.gov. Once the website is accessed, click on File Case Documents, enter the NLRB Case Number, and follow the detailed instructions. The burden of establishing the timely filing and receipt of the list will continue to be placed on the sending party. Since the list will be made available to all parties to the election, please furnish a total of three (3) copies, unless the list is submitted by facsimile or electronic filing, in which case no copies need be submitted. If you have any questions, please contact the Regional Office.

C. Notice of Posting Obligations

According to Section 103.20 of the Board's Rules and Regulations, the Employer must post the Notices to Election provided by the Board in areas conspicuous to potential voters for a minimum of three (3) working days prior to 12:01 a.m. on the date of the election. Failure to follow the posting requirement may result in additional litigation if proper objections to the election are filed. Section 103.20(c) requires an employer to notify the Board at least five (5) working days prior to 12:01 a.m. of the day of the election if it has not received copies of the election notice. Club Demonstration Services, 317 NLRB 349 (1995). Failure to do so estops employers from filing objections based on non-posting of the election notice.

RIGHT TO REQUEST REVIEW

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 102.67 of the National Labor Relations Board's Rules and Regulations, Series 8, as amended, a request for review of this Decision may be filed with the Executive Secretary, National Labor Relations Board, 1099 14th Street, N.W., Washington, DC 20570-0001.

Pursuant to the Board's Rules and Regulations, Sections 102.111 – 102.114, concerning the Service and Filing of Papers, the request for review must be received by the Executive Secretary of the Board in Washington, DC by the close of business on Tuesday, June 25, 2013, at 5:00 p.m. (ET), unless filed electronically. Consistent with the Agency's E-Government initiative, parties are encouraged to file a request for review electronically. If the request for review is filed electronically, it will be considered timely if the transmission of the entire document through the Agency's website is accomplished by no later than 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time on the due date. Please be advised that Section 102.114 of the Board's Rules and Regulations precludes acceptance of a request for review by facsimile transmission. Upon good cause shown, the Board may grant special permission for a longer period within which to file.<sup>2</sup> A copy of the request for review must be served on each of the other parties to the proceeding, as well as on the undersigned, in accordance with the requirements of the Board's Rules and Regulations.

Filing a request for review electronically may be accomplished by using the E-filing system on the Agency's website at www.nlr.gov. Once the website is accessed, click on File Case Documents, enter the NLRB Case Number, and follow the detailed instructions. The responsibility for the receipt of the request for review rests exclusively with the sender. A failure to timely file the request for review will not be excused on the basis that the transmission could not be accomplished because the Agency's website was off line or unavailable for some other reason, absent a determination of technical failure of the site, with notice of such posted on the website.
