DIRECTION OF ELECTION

March 16, 1938

The National Labor Relations Board, having found that a question affecting commerce has arisen concerning the representation of employees of Horton Manufacturing Company, Fort Wayne, Indiana, and that all employees of the Company at its Fort Wayne, Indiana, plant, exclusive of executives, clerical employees, foremen, assistant foremen, and all other employees engaged in a supervisory capacity, constitute a unit appropriate for the purposes of collective bargaining within the meaning of Section 9 (b) of the National Labor Relations Act, 49 Stat. 449, and acting pursuant to the power vested in it by Section 9 (c) of said Act, and pursuant to Article III, Section 8, of National Labor Relations Board Rules and Regulations—Series 1, as amended, hereby

DIRECTS that, as a part of its investigation to ascertain representatives for the purposes of collective bargaining with Horton Manufacturing Company, an election by secret ballot shall be conducted within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of this Direction of Election, under the direction and supervision of the Regional Director for the Eleventh Region, acting in this matter as the agent of the National Labor Relations Board and subject to Article III, Section 9, of said Rules and Regulations, among all employees of Horton Manufacturing Company at its Fort Wayne, Indiana, plant as of October 31, 1937, exclusive of executives, clerical employees, foremen, assistant foremen, and all other employees engaged in a supervisory capacity, to determine whether they desire to be represented by United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America, Local No. 904,¹ or by International Association of Machinists for the purposes of collective bargaining, or by neither.

[SAME TITLE]

AMENDMENT TO DIRECTION OF ELECTION

March 28, 1938

On March 16, 1938, the National Labor Relations Board, herein called the Board, issued a Direction of Election in the above-entitled proceeding. The Direction of Election provides for an election by secret ballot "among all employees of Horton Manufacturing Company at its Fort Wayne, Indiana, plant as of October 31, 1937, . . . to determine whether they desire to be represented by United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America, Local No. 904, or by International Association of Machinists for the purposes of collective bargaining, or by neither."

All of the parties to the proceeding having joined in requesting the substitution of "on the payroll for the week ending October 29, 1937," for "as of October 31, 1937," and the International Association of Machinists having requested the addition of "Local No. 1561" to its designation, the Board hereby amends the Direction of Election issued on March 16, 1938, by striking therefrom the words, "as of October 31, 1937," and substituting therefor the words, "on the payroll for the week ending October 29, 1937," and by adding the words, ", Local No. 1561," immediately following the words, "International Association of Machinists."
