

In the Matter of SPRAY WOOLEN MILL and TEXTILE WORKERS ORGANIZING COMMITTEE

Case No. R-531

CERTIFICATION OF REPRESENTATIVES

March 22, 1938

On February 18, 1938, the National Labor Relations Board, herein called the Board, issued a Decision and Direction of Election in the above-entitled case.¹ The Direction of Election directed that an election by secret ballot be conducted among all employees of Marshall Field & Company who were on the pay roll of the Company at its Marshall Field & Company Woolen Mill,² Spray, North Carolina, during the pay-roll period next preceding the filing of the petition, exclusive of clerical, sales, and supervisory employees and except those who have quit or have been discharged for cause between that period and the date of the election, to determine whether or not they desire to be represented by Textile Workers Organizing Committee, for the purposes of collective bargaining.

Pursuant to the Direction, an election by secret ballot was conducted on March 4, 1938, under the direction and supervision of the Regional Director for the Fifth Region (Baltimore, Maryland). Thereafter, on March 7, 1938, the Regional Director, acting pursuant to Article III, Section 9, of National Labor Relations Board Rules and Regulations—Series 1, as amended, issued and duly served upon the parties an Intermediate Report on the election. No objections or exceptions to the Intermediate Report have been filed by any of the parties.

As to the balloting and its results the Regional Director reported as follows:

Total Number Eligible to Vote.....	451
Total Number of Ballots Cast.....	398
Total Number of Ballots Cast for Textile Workers Organizing Committee.....	289
Total Number of Ballots Cast against Textile Workers Organizing Committee.....	104
