

In the Matter of ARBUCKLE BROS. and COMMITTEE FOR INDUSTRIAL ORGANIZATION ON BEHALF OF EMPLOYEES OF ARBUCKLE BROS.

Case No. R-824

CERTIFICATION OF REPRESENTATIVES

August 4, 1938

On June 28, 1938, the National Labor Relations Board issued a Decision and Direction of Election in the above-entitled proceeding.¹ The Direction of Election provided that an election by secret ballot be conducted within fifteen (15) days from the date of the Direction among the samplers, checkers, watchmen, sugar warehouse and shipping employees, porters, elevator operators, boilerhouse employees, assistant foremen, and production and maintenance employees of Margaret A. Jamison and Martha Jamison, partners doing business as Arbuckle Bros., New York City, herein called the Company, who were employed by the Company during the pay-roll period ending March 19, 1938, excluding foremen, clerical and supervisory employees, and technical, laboratory and hospital employees, and those who have since quit or been discharged for cause, to determine whether they desired to be represented by the Committee for Industrial Organization or by Local 1476, Sugar Refinery Workers, of the International Longshoremen's Association for the purposes of collective bargaining, or by neither.

Pursuant to the Direction of Election, an election by secret ballot was conducted on July 12, 1938, at Brooklyn, New York, under the direction and supervision of the Regional Director for the Second Region (New York City). Full opportunity was accorded to all parties to this investigation to participate in the conduct of the ballot and to make challenges. On July 16, 1938, the Regional Director, acting pursuant to Article III, Section 9, of National Labor Relations Board Rules and Regulations—Series 1, as amended, duly served upon the parties her Intermediate Report dated July 15, 1938, on the secret ballot. No objections or exceptions to the Intermediate Report have been filed by any of the parties.
