ORDER GRANTING MOTIONS

On July 27, 2011, the Employers and the Intervenor filed Motions to Remand this case to the Regional Director for the scheduling of a new election. The Motions state that the Employers and the Intervenor will not file exceptions to Administrative Law Judge Lana Parke's Report and Recommendations on Objections; they waive their rights to a decision by the Board on the objections filed by the Petitioner; and they agree to the setting aside of the election held in this case and proceeding to a second election. The Petitioner filed an Opposition to the Motions to Remand.

Having duly considered the matter, the Board grants the Motions to Remand.¹ Accordingly, this case is remanded to the Regional Director for Region 32 for further appropriate action, including the scheduling of a new election. In view of this remand, any exceptions filed by the parties to the Administrative Law Judge's Report are moot, and will not be considered by the Board.

¹ Member Becker is recused and did not participate in the consideration of the Motions to Remand.
