A controversy having arisen over the amount of backpay due to a discriminatee under the terms of the Order issued by the National Labor Relations Board on December 31, 2011,¹ and enforced by the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, the Regional Director for Region 2, on June 30, 2014, issued a Compliance Specification and Notice of Hearing. Pursuant thereto, a hearing was held before Administrative Law Judge Mindy E. Landow.

Thereafter, on December 29, 2015, the Administrative Law Judge Mindy E. Landow issued her Supplemental Decision and, on the same date, the proceeding was transferred to and continued before the Board in Washington, D.C. The Administrative Law Judge determined the amount of backpay due to the discriminatee and recommended that the Respondent pay such amount.

No statement of exceptions having been filed with the Board, and the time allowed for such filing having expired,

¹ The unpublished Order adopts the Administrative Law Judge's findings and conclusions.

Pursuant to Section 10(c) of the National Labor Relations Act, as amended and Section 102.48 of the National Labor Relations Board Rules and Regulations, the Board adopts the findings and conclusions of the Administrative Law Judge as contained in her Supplemental Decision, and orders that the Respondent, Carnegie Linen Services, Inc., its officers, agents, successors, and assigns, shall pay the amount set forth in the recommended Order of the Administrative Law Judge.

Dated, Washington, D.C., March 2, 2016.
