P.S. to All Counsel: The Court has replaced the original panel rehearing image filed November 14, 2016, with the sufficient panel rehearing image provided by counsel. The Court will re-generate the notice of docket activity for the original panel rehearing docket event to provide all counsel the sufficient panel rehearing image (This will seem to be a re-issuance of the 1st notice of deficiency, but it is not. This is simply the Court's method of confirming that the original panel rehearing image has been replaced; and the method of providing said sufficient image to all counsel. The text of the insufficient event will remain the same, and the deficiency letter will remain attached to the original event; however, counsel should confirm that the new sufficient image is attached to the event). The notice of docket activity will be re-sent to all counsel this date via a separate e-mail notification.
