Re: AM Property Holding Corp., and
Planned Building Services Inc.,
Case Nos. 2-CA-33146, et al.

Dear Mr. Shinnery,

On January 16, 2018, Planned Building Services (PBS) filed a motion for reconsideration of the Board's Decision and Order in AM Property Holding Corp., and Planned Building Services Inc., 365 NLRB No. 162, slip op. (Dec. 15, 2017).

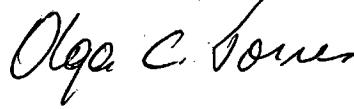

Although it appears that the Board's Rules and Regulations do not specifically set forth a time frame in which a party may respond to motions for reconsideration/Reopening the record, it is the General Counsel's understanding that it is the Board's practice is to provide two weeks for a response, which in this case would be January 30, 2018.

General Counsel hereby requests an extension of time to file a response to PBS's Motion to February 13, 2018. Earlier today, General Counsel communicated with Counsels for Local 32BJ SEIU, Planned Building Services, AM Property, Servco, and United Workers of America to ascertain their positions on her request for an extension of time. Counsel for Local 32BJ SEIU, Planned Building Services, Servco, and United Workers of America have no objections to the General Counsel's request. As of this writing, Counsel for AM Property has not taken a position on the General Counsel's request.

Very truly yours,

Olga C. Torres
