UNOPPOSED MOTION TO EXTEND THE POST-HEARING BRIEF DEADLINE

Pursuant to Section 102.42 of the National Labor Relation Board’s Rules and Regulations, Respondent moves the Court to extend the deadline for filing post-hearing briefs.

In support of this unopposed Motion, Respondent states the following:

1. At the conclusion of the hearing on January 31, 2018, this Court entered its Post-Hearing Brief deadline on the record, setting the deadline for March 2, 2018.
2. Respondent/the Parties only received complete hearing transcripts and hearing exhibits from EScribers on February 16, 2018.
3. Although Respondent anticipated that it (and all parties) would have received the post-hearing transcripts and exhibits before February 16, 2018, no party received the completed transcripts before this date.
4. To accommodate all parties with more time after receipt of the complete transcripts and hearing exhibits, Respondent requests that the deadline for post-hearing briefs be extended to March 23, 2018.
5. This extension will allow time to receive and review the transcripts and exhibits from the hearing and incorporate it all post-hearing briefs.

6. All parties have agreed not to oppose this Motion; such extension will not result in prejudice to any party.

7. A proposed Order is attached for the Court's convenience.

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, Respondent respectfully requests that this Motion be granted.
