MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE POST-HEARING BRIEFS

Pursuant to Section 102.42 of the Rules and Regulations of the National Labor Relations Board, Counsel for the General Counsel respectfully requests a brief extension of time to file post-hearing briefs. A hearing in this matter before Administrative Law Judge Thomas M. Randazzo was held on March 8, 2018 in Bowling Green, Ohio. The current due date for the parties' post-hearing briefs is Friday, April 13, 2018. Counsel for the General Counsel respectfully requests the due date be extended by two weeks to the close of business on Friday, April 27, 2018.

The basis for this request is a pre-scheduled overseas trip by Counsel for the General Counsel in the latter half of March 2018 during which time the undersigned will be unavailable to perform work.

Respondent's counsel does not oppose the requested extension period. Respondent's counsel indicated that he has a Board hearing scheduled in mid-April in another matter and that the requested extension will allow him to adequately prepare for that hearing and file a post-hearing brief in this matter. The Charging Party is unrepresented in this matter.

Based upon the foregoing, the undersigned respectfully requests that the instant Motion For Extension Of Time To File Post-Hearing Briefs be granted and that the new due date for the Parties' post-hearing briefs be set for Friday, April 27, 2018.

Dated at Cleveland, Ohio this 3rd day of March, 2018.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Stephen M. Pincus
