MOTION OF THE NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS BOARD TO REMOVE THIS CASE FROM ABEYANCE, SUMMARILY GRANT
THE COMPANY’S PETITION FOR REVIEW IN PART,
AND REMAND TO THE BOARD THE REMAINDER OF THE CASE

To the Honorable, the Judges of the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit:

The National Labor Relations Board, by its Deputy Associate General Counsel, respectfully moves this Court to remove this case from abeyance, summarily grant review of that portion of the Board’s Order governed by the Supreme Court’s decision in Epic Systems Corp. v. Lewis, No. 16-285, 2018 WL 2292444 (U.S. May 21, 2018), and remand to the Board the remainder of the case.

1. In the Decision and Order under review, the Board found that Neiman Marcus Group, Inc. (“the Company”) violated the National Labor Relations Act by maintaining an agreement barring employees from concertedly pursuing work-related claims in any forum, arbitral or judicial. 362 NLRB No. 157, 2015 WL 4647966, *1-3 (2015). In doing so, the Board applied the rule set forth in Murphy Oil, USA, Inc., 361 NLRB 774 (2014), enforcement denied in relevant part, 808 F.3d 1013 (5th Cir. 2015), cert. granted, No. 16-307 (Jan. 13, 2017).

The Board separately found, under its analytical framework laid out in Lutheran Heritage Village-Livonia, 343 NLRB 646 (2004), that the Company violated the Act by maintaining an arbitration agreement that employees would reasonably construe as restricting their right to file unfair-labor-practice charges with the Board. Neiman Marcus Group, 2015 WL 4647966, *1 n.4.

2. The Company filed a petition for this Court to review the Board's Order.
3. On June 20, 2016, this Court placed this case in abeyance pending the Supreme Court's decision in NLRB v. Murphy Oil, USA, Inc., No. 16-307.
4. On May 21, 2018, the Supreme Court issued its decision in Epic Systems, Murphy Oil, and Ernst & Young LLP v. Morris, No. 16-300. The Court held that employers may lawfully maintain arbitration agreements that bar employees from concerted pursuing work-related legal claims.
5. The Board acknowledges that under that decision, the Board's finding that the Company unlawfully maintained the Agreement is not enforceable, and the Board is willing to submit to partial summary grant of review of the relevant portion of its Order.
6. On December 14, 2017, the Board issued The Boeing Company, which "overrule[d] the Lutheran Heritage 'reasonably construe' standard" and announced a new test to replace it. 365 NLRB No. 154, 2017 WL 6403495 at *2 (Dec. 14, 2017).

Boeing's rejection of the "reasonably construe" standard eliminates the Board's rationale for its finding at issue here that the Company's agreement restricts employees' right to file unfair-labor-practice charges with the Board. The issue of whether the agreement restricts that right under Boeing's framework is a question for the Board to answer in the first instance. Accordingly, the Board respectfully moves this Court to sever and remand that issue to the Board. See Am. Express Travel v. NLRB, No. 15-60830 (5th Cir. June 1, 2018) (order granting unopposed motion seeking summary grant of review of Board order in part under Epic Systems and remand of remainder of case) (Attached).

7. Counsel for the Board has discussed this motion with counsel for the Company. The Company has not decided whether it will oppose the motion, but reserves the right to do so.

WHEREFORE, the Board respectfully requests that the Court remove this case from abeyance, summarily grant review of that portion of the Board's Order governed by the Supreme Court's decision in Epic Systems, and sever and remand to the Board the remainder of the case.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/Linda Dreeben
