(SEAL) NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS BOARD

² The Respondent moves for reconsideration of the Board’s conclusions that the Respondent’s discharges of employees Shawn Wade, Nannette French, Jerry Smith Sr., and Stacey Williams violated Sec. 8(a)(3), the Board’s Order requiring it to reinstate employee Lauren Keele with backpay, and the expanded notice-reading, notice-posting, and notice-publication remedies. With respect to French’s discharge, the Respondent contends that the judge’s credibility findings preclude the Board from inferring from circumstantial evidence that the Respondent had knowledge of French’s union activity. We disagree. While the judge credited Operations Manager Margaret Bonner’s testimony that Bonner did not observe French distributing union cards, Bonner did not testify that she had no other source of knowledge that French had distributed union cards.

Chairman Ring adheres to his partial dissent in the underlying decision, but he agrees that the Respondent has not shown extraordinary circumstances warranting reconsideration.

Member Kaplan did not participate in the underlying decision, and he expresses no view as to whether it was correctly decided. He agrees, however, that the Respondent’s motion for reconsideration should be denied because the Respondent has not shown extraordinary circumstances warranting reconsideration.
