ORDER GRANTING EXTENSION OF TIME FILE BRIEFS

On November 28, 2018, Administrative Law Judge Mara Anzalone established a briefing schedule to consider whether to reopen the record in this case.

Earlier today, an extension of time request was filed asking for an extended period of time for briefing this matter.

For good cause shown, I GRANT the 30-day extension of time request; and Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that a party seeking to reopen the record in this proceeding for the purpose of taking evidence on the issues raised by application of the Board's new standard to the instant case is directed to do so by close of business (PST) on January 7, 2019.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that any opposition brief to a party's motion to reopen the record must be filed by close of business (PST) on January 14, 2019, and any reply brief in further support of a motion to reopen must be filed by close of business (PST) on January 28, 2019.

SO ORDERED.

Date: December 7, 2018, San Francisco, California.
