1 In denying review, we agree with the Regional Director’s finding that the parties’ agreement to extend the collective-bargaining agreement for one year was ambiguous as to its effective date, and therefore did not meet the Board’s formal and substantive requirements to bar a competing petition. South Mountain Healthcare and Rehabilitation Center, 344 NLRB 375 (2004). We therefore find it unnecessary to rely on the Regional Director’s further findings that, under the Board’s long-held policies, the extension agreement could not act as a contract bar because it prematurely extended the collective-bargaining agreement between the Employer and the Intervenor, did not clearly state on its face its duration period, and did not comply with the formal requirement of being signed by both parties.
