Case 07-CA-118835

MICHIGAN WORKERS ORGANIZING

ORDER REMANDING<sup>1</sup>

On October 10, 2018, the National Labor Relations Board issued a Notice to Show Cause why this case should not be remanded for further consideration under The Boeing Co., 365 NLRB No. 154 (2017). The General Counsel filed a response opposing remand.<sup>2</sup>

Having duly considered the matter,

IT IS ORDERED that this proceeding is remanded to Administrative Law Judge Arthur J. Amchan for the purpose of reopening the record, if necessary, and the preparation of a supplemental decision addressing the complaint allegations affected by Boeing and setting forth credibility resolutions, findings of fact, conclusions of law, and a recommended Order. Copies of the supplemental decision shall be served on all parties, after which the provisions of Section 102.46 of the Board's Rules and Regulations shall be applicable.

<sup>2</sup> The General Counsel requests that the Board, instead of remanding the case to the judge, dismiss the remaining complaint allegations. The Board denies this request and leaves to the judge's consideration any motion to dismiss the remaining complaint allegations.

On January 23, 2019, the Board denied the Charging Party's Motion for Leave to File Out of Time.
