Re: Case No. 02-CA-156761, et al.

Ms. Rothschild:

Verizon Wireless and the Verizon Wireline Entities submit this notice of supplemental authority regarding the Board's July 22, 2020 decisions in companion cases to this matter, Cellco Partnership d/b/a Verizon Wireless, 369 NLRB No. 130 (2020), and Cellco Partnership d/b/a Verizon Wireless, 369 NLRB No. 131 (2020).

In the instant matter, the Board issued an order to show cause regarding whether the allegations regarding Code of Conduct Section 1.6 and 3.4.1 should be remanded to an Administrative Law Judge for further proceedings under Caesars Entertainment. Respondents' position is that no remand is necessary. See Verizon Wireless' and Verizon Wireline Entities' Response to Notice to Show Cause; Reply in Support of the Companies' Response to the Board's Notice to Show Cause. Likewise, in the two companion cases identified above, the Board issued similar notices and Verizon opposed remand.

On July 22, 2020, the Board issued two decisions that adopt Verizon Wireless' position and confirm that remand of the allegations relating to Sections 1.6 and 3.4.1 are unnecessary. Where "Charging Party has not contended that the Respondent's IT systems are employees' only reasonable means of communication or that she would put forth any evidence or argument in support of that position if the case were remanded ... remand is not appropriate here and further proceedings before the judge would serve no purpose." Verizon Wireless, 369 NLRB No. 130, slip op. at *2; Verizon Wireless, 369 NLRB No. 130 (same).

In the above-captioned matter, the Charging Parties likewise have made no such showing or argument. As such, the Agency should retain jurisdiction over the allegations related to Code Sections 1.6 and 3.4.1, and dismiss them.

Very truly yours,

/s/ E. Michael Rossman
