Re: American Medical Response Mid-Atlantic, Inc.
Case 05-CA-221233

Dear Ms. Rothschild,

I am in receipt of the September 17, 2020 letter from Mr. Bryan Carmody, counsel for American Medical Response Mid-Atlantic, Inc. (Respondent), to the Office of the Executive Secretary in the above-captioned case. In his letter, Mr. Carmody notifies you of Respondent's intent to file a reply to counsel for the General Counsel's Opposition to Respondent's Motion for Reconsideration (Opposition), and sets a proposed timeframe for that reply.¹ In his letter, Mr. Carmody also discusses his request that counsel for the General Counsel file an amended Opposition.

Counsel for the General Counsel is satisfied with the Opposition as filed on September 10, 2020, and does not intend to modify it. Respondent has been apprised of counsel for the General Counsel's position on the matter.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Christy E. Bergstresser

¹ To the extent Respondent raises substantive arguments in its September 17, 2020 letter, counsel for the General Counsel submits that those arguments are not properly before the Board, and requests that they are not considered as such.
