Re: Regional Ambulance Services, Inc. – Case No. 32-Rc-267381

Dear Ms. Hardy-Mahoney:

I write on behalf of the Employer in the above-referenced case to request a brief postponement of the pre-election hearing, which is currently scheduled for Friday, October 30, 2020, until Monday, November 2, 2020. The Employer has already submitted its Statement of Position, so no extension of the deadline to submit that document is necessary.

The reason for this request is that October 30, 2020 is Nevada Day, a state holiday in Nevada during which our office is closed and our attorneys and staff are unavailable. Employer submits that this constitutes “good cause” for a postponement for purposes of 29 C.F.R. § 102.63(a)(1), and given the short amount of delay (two calendar days) and the fact that Employer has already submitted its Statement of Position and related documents, will not prejudice the Board or the Parties in their preparation for the hearing.

I also relayed my request for postponement to the representative for the Petitioner by email, and the Petitioner indicated by email response that the Union is not amenable to agreeing to postponement. I have separately emailed Petitioner’s representative with a copy of this Motion for Postponement of Hearing.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'Jared Hague', is written over a horizontal line.
