TIME SENSITIVE UNOPPOSED
MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

Under Federal Rule of Appellate Procedure 26(b) and Eleventh Circuit Rule 26-1, Respondent E.A. Renfroe & Company, Inc. [Renfroe] moves the Court for a thirty-day extension of the January 27, 2021 deadline to file its Brief of Respondent—to February 26, 2021. In support of this motion, Renfroe states the following.

1. Renfroe’s Brief of Respondent was initially due on December 28, 2020.

2. Based on ongoing settlement discussions, Renfroe moved to extend that deadline to January 27, 2021, and the Court granted Renfroe’s motion.

3. Renfroe and Petitioner National Labor Relations Board continue to engage in discussions to settle this matter and continue to make substantial progress toward reaching a settlement.

4. In the interests of economy, Renfroe wishes to delay the filing of a brief that may become unnecessary if the parties are successful in negotiating a settlement.

5. Given the complexity of any resolution of this matter, it appears that the parties are unlikely to conclude settlement negotiations by the current January 27, 2021 deadline despite diligent efforts. Moreover, if the parties' negotiations do conclude before the current deadline but do not produce a settlement, Renfroe is concerned it will have insufficient time to prepare its Brief of Respondent.

6. Therefore, Renfroe requests a thirty-day extension of the briefing deadline to allow the parties to continue settlement negotiations.

7. Renfroe's counsel has contacted counsel for the National Labor Relations Board. The Board does not oppose this motion.

Therefore, for the reasons stated above, Respondent E.A. Renfroe & Company, Inc. requests that the Court enter an order extending the deadline to file the Brief of Respondent until February 26, 2021.

Respectfully submitted,

s/ E. Travis Ramey
