NOTICE OF ELECTION

INSTRUCTIONS TO EMPLOYEES VOTING BY U.S. MAIL

PURPOSE OF ELECTION: This election is to determine the representative, if any, desired by the eligible employees for purposes of collective bargaining with their employer. (See VOTING UNIT in this Notice of Election for description of eligible employees.) A majority of the valid ballots cast will determine the results of the election. Only one valid representation election may be held in a 12-month period.

SECRET BALLOT: The election will be by secret ballot carried out through the U.S. mail under the supervision of the Regional Director of the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB). A sample of the official ballot is shown on the next page of this Notice. Voters will be allowed to vote without interference, restraint, or coercion. Employees eligible to vote will receive in the mail Instructions to Employees Voting by United States Mail, a ballot, a blue envelope, and a yellow self-addressed envelope needing no postage.

ELIGIBILITY RULES: Employees eligible to vote are those described under the VOTING UNIT on the next page and include employees who did not work during the designated payroll period because they were ill or on vacation or temporarily laid off. Employees who have quit or been discharged for cause since the designated payroll period and who have not been rehired or reinstated prior to the date of this election are not eligible to vote.

CHALLENGE OF VOTERS: An agent of the Board or an authorized observer may question the eligibility of a voter. Such challenge must be made at the time the ballots are counted.

AUTHORIZED OBSERVERS: Each party may designate an equal number of observers, this number to be determined by the NLRB. These observers (a) act as checkers at the counting of ballots; (b) assist in identifying voters; (c) challenge voters and ballots; and (d) otherwise assist the NLRB.

METHOD AND DATE OF ELECTION

The election will be conducted by United States mail. The mail ballots will be mailed to employees employed in the appropriate collective-bargaining unit. At 4:30 p.m. on Thursday, March 4, 2021, ballots will be mailed to voters from the National Labor Relations Board, Subregion 36, Green-Wyatt Federal Building, 1220 SW 3rd Avenue, Suite 605, Portland, OR 97204. Voters must sign the outside of the envelope in which the ballot is returned. Any ballot received in an envelope that is not signed will be automatically void.

Those employees who believe that they are eligible to vote and did not receive a ballot in the mail by Thursday, March 18, 2021, as well as those employees who require a duplicate ballot, should communicate immediately with the National Labor Relations Board by either calling the Subregion 36 office at (503)326-3085 or our national toll-free line at 1-844-762-NLRB (1-844-762-6572).

Voters must return their mail ballots so that they will be received in the National Labor Relations Board, Subregion 36 office by 4:30 p.m. on Thursday, April 1, 2021. In order to be valid and counted, the returned ballots must be received in the Subregion 36 office prior to the counting of the ballots. All ballots will be commingled and counted by an agent of Subregion 36 of the National Labor Relations Board on Tuesday, April 6, 2021 at 2:00 p.m. with participants being present via electronic means.

VOTING UNITS

VOTING GROUP A – (PROFESSIONAL UNIT):

All full-time and regular part-time Registered Nurses (RNs) employed by the Employer at its facility located in Myrtle Point, Oregon who were employed during the payroll period ending February 10, 2021; excluding all other professional employees, non-professional employees, managerial employees, office clerical employees, confidential employees, agency employees, employees represented by other labor organizations, and guards and supervisors as defined by the Act.

VOTING GROUP B (NON-PROFESSIONAL UNIT):

All full-time and regular part-time Licensed Practical Nurses (LPNs) employed by the Employer at its facility located in Myrtle Point, Oregon who were employed during the payroll period ending February 10, 2021; excluding all professional employees, managerial employees, office clerical employees, confidential employees, agency employees, employees represented by other labor organizations, and guards and supervisors as defined by the Act.

If a majority of the professional employees (Voting Group A) vote “Yes” to the first question on the ballot, indicating their desire to be included in a unit with non-professional employees, they will be so included. Their votes on the second question then will be counted together with the votes of the non-professional employees (Voting Group B) to determine whether the employees in the overall unit wish to be represented by the Petitioner. If, on the other hand, a majority of the professional employees vote against inclusion, they will not be included with the non-professional employees. Their votes on the second question will be separately counted to determine whether they wish to be represented by the Petitioner in a separate unit.

RIGHTS OF EMPLOYEES - FEDERAL LAW GIVES YOU THE RIGHT TO:

- Form, join, or assist a union
- Choose representatives to bargain with your employer on your behalf
- Act together with other employees for your benefit and protection
- Choose not to engage in any of these protected activities
- In a State where such agreements are permitted, the Union and Employer may enter into a lawful union-security agreement requiring employees to pay periodic dues and initiation fees. Nonmembers who inform the Union that they object to the use of their payments for nonrepresentational purposes may be required to pay only their share of the Union's costs of representational activities (such as collective bargaining, contract administration, and grievance adjustment).

It is the responsibility of the National Labor Relations Board to protect employees in the exercise of these rights.

The Board wants all eligible voters to be fully informed about their rights under Federal law and wants both Employers and Unions to know what is expected of them when it holds an election.

If agents of either Unions or Employers interfere with your right to a free, fair, and honest election the election can be set aside by the Board. When appropriate, the Board provides other remedies, such as reinstatement for employees fired for exercising their rights, including backpay from the party responsible for their discharge.

The following are examples of conduct that interfere with the rights of employees and may result in setting aside of the election:

- Threatening loss of jobs or benefits by an Employer or a Union
- Promising or granting promotions, pay raises, or other benefits, to influence an employee's vote by a party capable of carrying out such promises
- An Employer firing employees to discourage or encourage union activity or a Union causing them to be fired to encourage union activity
- Making campaign speeches to assembled groups of employees on company time where attendance is mandatory, within the 24-hour period before the mail ballots are dispatched
- Incitement by either an Employer or a Union of racial or religious prejudice by inflammatory appeals
- Threatening physical force or violence to employees by a Union or an Employer to influence their votes

The National Labor Relations Board protects your right to a free choice.

Improper conduct will not be permitted. All parties are expected to cooperate fully with this Agency in maintaining basic principles of a fair election as required by law.

Anyone with a question about the election may contact the NLRB Office at (503)326-3085 or visit the NLRB website www.nlr.gov for assistance.
