The Motion of the Acting General Counsel to the National Labor Relations Board to withdraw portions of the General Counsel’s Briefs is granted.¹

¹ The Respondent’s opposition to the Acting General Counsel’s motion challenges the validity of Acting General Counsel Ohr’s appointment. Even assuming, arguendo, that the Board would have jurisdiction to review the actions of the President, we have determined that it would not effectuate the policies of the Act to exercise this jurisdiction. See National Assn. of Broadcast Employees & Technicians Local 51 (American Broadcasting Companies, Inc.), 370 NLRB No. 114 (2021). In any event, the arguments the Acting General Counsel seeks to withdraw via this motion are still before the Board because they were raised by the Respondent. Therefore, we do not believe our granting this motion will prejudice the Respondent.
