ORDER DENYING MOTION

The Charging Party’s motion for reconsideration of the Board’s Decision and Order reported at 371 NLRB No. 4 (2021) is denied. The Charging Party has not identified any material error, raised any issue not previously considered, or demonstrated extraordinary circumstances warranting reconsideration under Section 102.48(c)(1) of the Board’s Rules and Regulations.

(SEAL) NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS BOARD

1 The National Labor Relations Board has delegated its authority in this proceeding to a three-member panel.

2 Although Member Prouty did not participate in the underlying case, he has serious doubts about the correctness of the Board’s decision and would reconsider the issues raised therein if an appropriate case is brought before the Board in the future. He agrees, however, that the Charging Party’s motion fails to establish any grounds warranting reconsideration under Sec. 102.48 of the Board’s Rules and Regulations.

Chairman McFerran adheres to her dissent in the underlying case, which raised arguments now presented by the Charging Party, but she agrees that the Charging Party’s motion fails to establish any grounds warranting reconsideration under Sec. 102.48 of the Board’s Rules and Regulations.
